

If you are just starting out with photography or a lifetime enthusiast---

Everyone is encouraged to participate in the Natural Wonders Photography Contest!

Start taking pictures now in the following categories: Landscapes, Waterscapes, Native Wildlife, Native Plants, and Ways to Protect Our Waterways and prepare yourself for submitting your pictures to the contest next spring!

Prizes include a reception for all participants at the Gibby Center for the Arts in Middletown where the top three winning photographs in each category will be displayed! Other prizes include cash prizes and more to be announced later!

Visit www.apporiver.org for the official rules and more detailed information about the contest or call 302-382-0335!
